

YORK UNIVERSITY OCTOBER 27-28 2016

GLOBAL LABOUR

RESEARCH CENTRE

GRADUATE STUDENT SYMPOSIUM

The Global Labour Research Centre is pleased to host its second annual Graduate Student Symposium, to be held at York University on October 27-28, 2016. The symposium will showcase research by emerging scholars on a wide range of issues related to the study of work and labour in a global context, and will offer a interdisciplinary forum for graduate students and post-doctoral fellows to share their research in a collaborative environment.

Register to attend: <http://glrc.apps01.yorku.ca/>

This event is supported by: Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies; Vice-President of Research & Innovation; Faculty of Graduate Studies; Vice-President Academic & Provost; York Graduate Programs in Geography, and Gender, Feminist, and Women's Studies; York Centre for Asian Research; Canada Research Chair in the Political Economy of Gender and Work; Canada Research Chair, Socially Engaged Research in Race and Racialization; Osgoode Hall Law School; LIUNA Enrico Henry Mancinelli Professor in Global Labour Issues.