

FEBRUARY 21-22, 2019

York University

GLOBAL LABOUR RESEARCH CENTRE

GRADUATE STUDENT SYMPOSIUM

The symposium will showcase research by emerging scholars on a wide range of issues related to engages in the study of work, employment and labour in the context of a constantly changing global economy.

To register, and for any inquiries: glrc@yorku.ca

 @glrc_york

 @glrcyork

This event is supported by: Faculty of LA&PS, Vice-President Research & Innovation, Vice-President Academic & Provost, Canada Research Chair in the Political Economy of Gender & Work, Institute for Feminist Legal Studies, Department of Politics, Spaces of Labour in Moments of Urban Populism Project, Canadian Association for Work and Labour Studies, School of Human Resource Management, Faculty of Environmental Studies, Department of Anthropology, School of Gender, Sexuality & Women's Studies, LIUNA Enrico Henry Mancinelli Professor in Global Labour Issues, Centre for Feminist Research, York Centre for Asian Research, Canada Research Chair in Canadian Migration Policy, Impacts and Activism, School of Public Policy & Administration, Department of Sociology, Department of History, Faculty of Graduate Studies, and Centre for Industrial Relations and Human Resources at University of Toronto.